Mones says...

There was this person who lived a couple of thousand years ago, one who very early on accepted Jesus as friend and saviour and who was spoken of as a disciple, a lady by the name of Tabitha, who lived in Lydda.

Tabitha was well known for her acts of kindness to those who surrounded her. She showed particular care for the needy and the destitute, those who are so close to God's heart, attract His attention and response, and the treatment of whom by others will be used as the plum-line of judgement.

Tabitha got sick and died. The poor, and the other disciples, were devastated by her loss, refusing to let go, and somehow they had the faith that she could be resurrected to life. Upon hearing that Peter was nearby in Joppa, modern day Yaffa, a distance of 13 miles away, they sent a message to him to come and restore Tabitha to life and to them!

Every time I read this story, I am struck with how readily Peter responded to their call and in the face of such a daunting task he went with them! Also I have always taken note of the reception he got when he arrived there, all the widows surrounded him distraught and told him about Tabitha's acts of kindness to them and showed him the things she made for them.

Furthermore, Peter's confidence and faith has always struck me every time I have read about Tabitha. He goes into the room where they have laid her ready for burial, falls on his knees and pray the Father's kindness love and power to fall into the place and the room. But then he turns to the dead woman and commands her to rise back to life, and her life is returned to her.

Oh that we might be the Tabithas of today. Oh that we might be the Peters of today.

Action and Faith, Faith and Action. Acts 9:39
